

The National Tolerance Program “Zayed’s Legacy”

A national annual program conducted for a week each year. This year the festival will start on November 9, to November 16 as The National Tolerance Festival will be an opportunity to:

Provide a national event to celebrate tolerance and promote the values of tolerance, coexistence and mutual respect.

Promote the Position of The late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan (may God have mercy upon him), locally and internationally as a symbol of patriotism and loyalty.

Raising awareness of the values of tolerance and the founding father's path in Humanitarian work.

Integration and joint work to promote the national identity, the values of tolerance and coexistence and our pride in the Legacy of Zayed.
